- Medical/dental/vision coverage
- Personalized, app-based wellness programs
- Retirement programs
- Life and disability insurance
- Employee assistance programs
- Paid maternity and paternity leave
- Childcare, adoption and education support

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

When you bring a variety of perspectives to the table, it creates a culture of innovation essential to facing the world's healthcare challenges. At Abbott, the advancement of talented people with different backgrounds and from different parts of the world ties closely to our identity.

- Women make up 47 percent of management and nearly half of our global workforce. In executive management, representation of women has increased 34 percent over a 10-year period. Four of the 11 members of our board of directors are female.
- We've been named to DiversityInc magazine's Top 50 Companies for Diversity for 14 straight years, and our senior leadership has been recognized in Black Enterprise magazine's 50 Most Powerful Women in Corporate America.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND CAREER ADVANCEMENT

Abbott's global presence and diverse businesses give you the opportunity for multiple careers within the same company. Whether you're an intern or a seasoned professional, Abbott offers career growth and hands-on training at every step.

- Our internship programs give high school, undergraduate and graduate students opportunities to gain valuable experience and interact with senior leaders. Interns at Abbott do real and meaningful work as part of teams that span virtually all of our businesses and functions including science, operations, finance, IT, marketing and other areas.
- Our Professional Development Program (PDP) offers exceptional opportunities for entry-level employees to learn our business and global operations. Most participants rotate through key assignments in North America, Latin America, Europe and Asia, with at least one assignment being outside of their home region.
- At Abbott, you have the opportunity to make a positive impact on your own career through our targeted development programs. At every level, employees can access development resources that support career advancement. From robust manager onboarding programs to executive-level development sessions, every employee can be a life-long learner at Abbott.

EMPLOYEE NETWORKS AND MENTORING

Our employee networks help us create a globally inclusive work environment. While each network has its own initiatives under a global governance model, all promote the growth and development of participants and are open to all employees.

- Advancing Professionals Network (early career employees)
- Asian Leadership and Cultural Network (ALCN)
- Black Business Network
- LA VOICE Network (Hispanic/Latino)
- Flex Network (part-time and flexible schedules)
- PRIDE (gay/lesbian/bisexual/transgender)
- Women in STEM Group
- Women Leaders of Abbott (WLA)
- Veterans Network

Around the globe, our formal mentoring program gives employees the opportunity to work with fellow co-workers in structured, year-long developmental partnerships. And our relationship-oriented culture supports informal mentorships through regular career events and networking opportunities.
