

ABBOTT IN THE U.S.

Helping Americans build better, healthier lives and stronger communities since 1888

OUR PEOPLE AND OUR IMPACT

25,000 EMPLOYEES IN THE U.S.

$8.7 BILLION TO THE U.S. ECONOMY IN 2016 ALONE*

$131million
IN U.S. volunteering
OVER 4 YEARS

300+ OPEN JOBS TODAY -APPLY NOW abbott.com/careers

ADVANCING U.S R&D AND MANUFACTURING

CREATING AND PRODUCING new U.S. inventions for 129

4,000+
SCIENTISTS, ENGINEERS and other
R&D STAFF IN THE U.S.

WORLD HQ
NORTH SUBURBAN
CHICAGO

U.S. R&D SITES

U.S. MANUFACTURING SITES

TRANSFORMING LIVES THROUGH OUR U.S. BUSINESSES

DIAGNOSTICS

Developing next-generation diagnostics tools

NEUROMODULATION

Finding innovative new answers for chronic pain and movement disorders

CARDIOVASCULAR

Creating breakthrough technologies for heart and vascular disease

DIABETES

Revolutionizing the way people monitor their glucose

NUTRITION

Developing science-based nutrition products

SNAPSHOT OF U.S. INNOVATION

Chicago physician Wallace C. Abbott becomes one of the pioneers of pharmaceutical science by formulating modern, accurate medicines.

Abbott scientists unveil the first licensed test to identify the HIV virus in blood

The world's first transcatheter mitral-valve repair device approved in the U.S.

Abbott launches
BurstDR™ therapy, designed to provide
chronic pain patients
with a new therapy
option.

1888

1925

1943 — 1985

- 1989

2013

2016 -

2017

Similac®, the first commercial milk-based baby formula by Abbott.

Abbott introduces a way to mass produce penicillin, critical during World War II.

Abbott launches Glucerna® for people with diabetes, pioneering a new category of diseasespecific nutritionals.

FreeStyle® Libre, our revolutionary glucose monitoring system, is available in Europe and under FDA review in the U.S.