The Haiti facility will soon take an important step toward source of economic activity in the area, providing jobs and opportunity. Today, this work reaches severe malnutrition. Working together with the local community, Abbott and PIH built the Nourimanba (PIH) has worked closely with local governments and UN agencies to improve health systems with the recent Kigali UHC Communiqué. The Haiti facility is an important peanut butter brand that is based on a local recipe and made with peanuts sourced from Acceso's farmer network. All will be available for sale soon network. All will be available for sale soon.